

Says

What have we heard them say?
What can we imagine them saying?

Thinks

What are their wants, needs, hopes, and dreams?
What other thoughts might influence their behavior?

metropolitan land prices was increase in future and also people destroying forest .so, save forest.

many people need big house and low cost and also all facilities

use of vehicles should be reduced and use electric vehicles, we reduce pollution housing prices in metropolitan cities in India varied significantly based on factors such as location, property type, size, amenities, and market demand.

real estate prices are subject to change and can be influenced by various economic, social, and political factors majority metropolitan cities is polluted without pollution is the dream trees should be grown in every house, and also water purification we can decrease metropolitan cities houses.

daily increasing metropolitan city house price and all daily using products values also increasing many traffic jam , accidents happen every day. many people get in organic foods.

mumbai remained india's most expensive city on the residential market with a square feet price of aproximatly 7593 above in indian rupees per square feet this is person fear housing price high cost, low land available, more crime, greater pollution levels anxieties supply and demand imbalance,real estate speculation,land scarcity, goverment policies

Does

What behavior have we observed?
What can we imagine them doing?

Feels

What are their fears, frustrations, and anxieties?
What other feelings might influence their behavior?